Harborside Hotel, Bar Harbor, Maine

INNOVATION FOR A HEALTHIER PLANET

29TH ANNUAL MAINE GERIATRICS CONFERENCE: WHERE POLICY MEETS PRACTICE

We provide a venue for health practitioners, social service providers, and others with interests in the field of aging to come together to share ideas, ask questions, and develop or support care strategies affecting older adults in all care settings. This is our task and our mission.

We are dedicated to ensuring that all conference sessions will enlighten, inspire, and honor the abilities of our conference attendees. By the end of the conference, you will be better prepared to advance ideas and systems that address older adult health disparities and optimize aging.

OVERALL LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. To effectively apply knowledge gained during the conference to actual situations regarding the care of older adults and the support of their informal caregivers
2. To evaluate older adult health care needs and implement potential mechanisms and modalities to address them
3. To develop ideas for working with older adults or propose alternative care solutions for improved health and wellbeing as expressed by the older adult

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Nurses, nurse practitioners, physicians, physician assistants, nursing facility administrators, certified nursing assistants, psychologists, social workers, mental health practitioners, occupational therapists, physical therapists, substance abuse counselors, and other aging enthusiasts.
