CoacherVision Training

We hope you will join us for what we believe is a model for oversight that resonates most with the role of the coach. This workshop will provide participants with an understanding of how to best support coaches day-to-day and develop coaches for long-term success.

CoacherVision - A model for Recovery Coach Oversight

This course will help participants:

- Define expectations of Recovery Coach oversight
- Understand the complexity and intricacy of the Recovery Coach role.
- Understand how organizational culture can support a CoacherVision model
- Learn the importance of accountability for both the Coachervisor and Recovery Coach
- How to support Recovery Coaches in professional settings
