

The Community Caring Collaborative presents

Poverty 101: bias, barriers & brain science

Equivalent to Family Futures Downeast Poverty 101

Presented by CCC staff with guest speaker, Nicole Witherbee
Chief Program Officer with the John T. Gorman Foundation

March 10th, 9 am — 3:30 pm
Kay Parker Building, Machias

Overview of the impacts of poverty, including:

- poverty definitions & data
- effects of cortisol and toxic stress on brain development
- bias
- scarcity and bandwidth — poverty simulator exercise
- benefits cliffs

Plus a panel discussion with parents on barriers & supports that make a difference in pursuing higher ed

Register at cccmaine.org

