Getting services for a child with behavioral health needs can be overwhelming. “Team Up for Your Child” is a step-by-step guide designed to help families navigate confusing service systems and work smarter with doctors, schools, agencies and insurers.

When a child has serious behavioral health issues, you suddenly have a team of professionals in your life who provide a variety of services. This team could include doctors, therapists, health workers and teachers – but remember that the coach of this team is you, the parent. You are the only one who takes care of the whole child.

The road map to behavioral health services that families need for autism, ADHD, psychiatric and developmental issues.

Learn how to:
• Identify your child's strengths & needs
• Make sense of reports and evaluations
• Understand your child's treatment plan
• Track your child’s progress
• Translate the Individualized Education Program

Wendy Lowe Beesman, a longtime freelance writer & the mother of a child with autism & bipolar disorder, authored this guide in consultation with 23 health & education professionals.

Jess Hall, Regional Parent Support Coordinator, 207-322-7618 jhall@crisisandcounseling.org

Facilitated by parents for parents. We offer unconditional support: no blame, no shame, and no judgment!

We want you to know that you are not ALONE!

Administration: 10 Caldwell Rd, Augusta, Maine 04330 • 207.626.3448 (voice & TTY): Fax 207.626.3453