

MAINE SPEAKS maine humanities council

"Equity In Our Everyday Lives"

The first in a series of talks focused on equity

MARPHEEN CHANN

Stories are a way to welcome in and bridge across differences and divides. In this talk, author and speaker Marpheen Chann leans into his own story and stories past and present to help translate topics such as diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging from heady, academic issues or trendy headlines into relatable and actionable concepts.

WASHINGTON COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Center for Learning and Excellence, upstairs in Riverview Hall

DECEMBER 4th
5:30 PM–6:30 PM

FREE to Attend / All Are Welcome

Join us in person at WCCC or on ZOOM

To REGISTER & for ZOOM, scan QR code or email bfarrar@mainecc.edu

